

WORKSHOP DETAILS

THE DISCOVERY OF TOOLS

- Primary
- Duration 1h 30 min
- Includes tour

First. – Objectives

- Learn to identify different tools and acquire the vocabulary of each.
- Recognize the different uses of each tool.
- Observe and locate these tools in an industrial environment of the last century.

Second- Contents

This workshop allows us to observe, discover, play, paint and related items necessary tools drill. Among these tools are:

- Gouge
- Pliers
- hammer
- Sieve
- Shovel
- Key bis endless
- The roller
- Lime

Third - Relationship with curriculum design

This workshop works aspects of vocabulary knowledge and use of each tool.

Interact, cooperate and work together.

Knowing the characteristics of the physical space in which life and develop human activity and recognize there specific items.

Four - Transversal skills

-Enhance communication and group dynamics in an exercise of discovery tools needed drill.

Five. - Description:

Students will address the meeting room of the nursery must boring, Once there open the box of tools needed boring, drawn seven of which tools mentioned above and explained each their uses a visual support to reinforce each.

Later will be four groups among schoolchildren:

- The group of sieves
- The group of tongs
- The group of gouges
- The group of keys endless screw

Each group will paint the profile of the tool, and together with their identification, head inside the ships needed to discover and boring look for the factory tour in the presence of these tools worked the workshop. Once discovered, a member of the tool will have to explain to their classmates. So between each group will tour locating items that easily prove known and can be placed into concrete work.